

2019 Zinfandel

Sonoma Coast • Flatridge Ranch

• 92 Points •

" This is quite an interesting late-released zinfandel, with aromas of cured meat, spices, poached plums and coffee beans. The palate is full-bodied, structured and persistent, with a rustic edge. Not for the faint-hearted."

-James Suckling, October 2025

Aromas

Jammy fruit; ripe blackberry, juicy marionberry, toasty oak

Palate

Blueberry compote, vanilla, warm baking spice

Impression

Structural tannic support providing a firm yet balanced finish.

Flatridge Ranch is home to our small planting of Zinfandel, a passion project for Mark Trione. Sitting on a sprawling property that has been piecemealed together over decades by the Trione family, Flatridge is more of a wilderness preserve than a vineyard.

What was once slated for logging, the ranch is now home to endless game trails, creeks, and mountain peaks spanning 11,000 acres. Only 9 of these acres are planted vineyards overlooking the Pacific Ocean just nine miles to the west and reaching an elevation of 1,200 feet.

Three generations farming premium wine grapes across five estate ranches for over four decades, the Trione family produce small lot, hand-crafted wines showcasing the best fruit from our vineyards.
